Madrid, July 23, N. S. Some Days since his Catholick Majesty delivered to the Count de St. Estevan del Puerto the blue Ribbon with the Badge of the Order of the Holy Ghost, and his Majesty himself put it over his Shoulder; he is one of the Knights who were named in the last Promotion made about ten Months ago by his most Christian Majesty, and the Ribbon was sent hither lately from Paris by the Chancellour of that Order. The Ribbons for three Knights more, named at the same Time, are also expected here very soon. On the 18th Instant the Ratifications of the late Peace between the Emperour and Spain were proclaimed with great Ceremony by the Magistrates of this Town on Horseback, with Kettle-Drums and Trumpets, and four Kings at Arms preceding them: They alighted at three different Places, and went upon Scaffolds, on each of which a Throne was erected, and there they proclaimed the said Ratifications. The Court is expected here on the 27th Instant from St. Ildefonso, in order to be present at the Bull-Feast on the 30th. Count Konigseck is expected here the Middle of the next Month, as Ambassadour from the Emperour to this Court. There is no Advice yet of the Marquess Mari's being arrived at Barcelona with his Squadron.

The Person who wrote a Letter to the Right Honourable the Chancellour of the Exchequer dated the 28th Instant and signed R. P. may, if he thinks fit, attend him at his House at Chelsea, at the Time proposed in the said Letter.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England give Notice, That they have made an Agreement with the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to circulate the Exchequer Bills made forth or to be made forth, pursuant to several Acts of Parliament for that Purpose now in Force, for one Year computed from the 24th of July 1725, to the 25th of July 1726.
